2.0 CONDITIONS FOR ASSIGNMENT OF COMMUNICATION RESOURCES FOR INNOVATORS

2.1 Any start-up wishing to use communication resources set aside by TCRA for the trial purpose shall apply for the same.

2.2 The applicant can be an individual, the company, and/or organization.

2.3 The applicant should submit to the Authority an application letter requesting communication resources, specifying intended use, location of service, the start date for the trial, and attach COSTECH endorsement.

2.4 TCRA remains with the right to assign required resources based on availability and usage.

2.5 Under no circumstances will the assignee claim the right of ownership of the resource assigned. Every assignment is meant for trial purposes, and for specific period.

2.6 The assigned resources should be used only for the requested purpose.

2.7 Assignment of any resource, unless expressed otherwise during the assignment, shall last for three (3) months only from the date of the assignment.

2.8 The assignee must discontinue the use of assigned resources after the three months.

- 2.9 Where assignee discontinues using the resource before the lapse of three (3), should inform TCRA in writing.
- 2.10 Should the applicant require to continue using the assigned resource beyond three (3) months should make an application to TCRA for extension of time.
- 2.11 Applications for extension of time shall be submitted to the TCRA one month before the expiring period.
- 2.12 The resources assigned should in no way be used for business purposes and no promotion of whatever kind will be allowed.
- 2.13 The assignee shall be responsible for the resource assigned and should use the resource provided for trial purposes only.
- 2.14 Any assignee who breaches the condition of usage of resources assigned, may have his right to use resources revoked by the TCRA.
